Position Announcement

Columbus, MT

Columbus Rural Fire District #3 (CRFD) is accepting applications for a Firefighter/ Paramedic position with an anticipated start date at the end of February or first of March 2019.

Permanent Position

This position will work within the chain of command established within the organization. Applicants must possess strong communication, leadership, and organizational skills, as well as proven integrity in working with volunteer organizations and the community. Successful candidates must realize that they will be working to provide support to a volunteer organization and in some cases may be working under Volunteer officers.

Columbus Fire Rescue (collectively the Columbus Rural Fire District #3 and the City of Columbus Fire Department), located in Stillwater County in south central Montana, is a large, geographically-diverse rural fire district. CRFD serves a municipal community of approximately 2,000 residents as well as a rural area of approximately 750 square miles for fire and 850 square miles for EMS. CRFD serves a total population of 6,500 residents with 40 volunteers and 7 career staff. CRFD provides structural and wildland fire protection, EMS, HAZMAT, and rescue within its jurisdiction.

The starting salary range for this position is $18.00 to $18.50 per hour, DOE, with a pay increase after successfully completing a 12-month probation period and is full time. This position includes excellent benefits including health insurance (100% coverage for employee and family), accidental death and disability insurance, FURS retirement system, and paid vacation. The shift rotation will be a 48/96 shared with 2 other firefighter/paramedics.

The application deadline is January 16th, 2019 at 5:00 PM.
